

The 28th World Service Conference

Discussion Essentials

Facilitator's Instructions

1. Group chooses a facilitator and empowers the facilitator to lead them.
2. Choose a recorder
3. Repeat the group's assignment
4. Watch the time!
5. Keep the discussion focused
6. Lead the group in summarizing
7. Be clear about what will be reported

006

THE MESSAGE

IT'S

BRAINSTORMING GUIDELINES

One good idea leads to another... good idea.

“No” and “can’t” do not exist.

Creativity has no limits.

Be part of—participate.

Think fast, analyze later...
Judging, evaluating, and criticizing are not brainstorming.

And above all...

HAVE FUN!

W
IT'S ALL ABOUT THE MESSAGE
6

SUGGESTED GROUND RULES

Stay Open-minded.

Listen and Share the Time.

Remember to Play Well with Others.

Don't Forget Why We're Here!

Stay Focused on the Subject at Hand.

Lively Conversation is Productive.

To Agree and to Disagree...That is the Process!

One More Time—Avoid Repetition.

It's Important to Start and Stop on Time.

and

NO KICKING, SCRATCHING, OR BITING ALLOWED...!

06

THE MESSAGE

IT'S ALL ABOUT

Small Group Exercise

Small Group Exercise

- ◆ Introductions
- ◆ Current service position
- ◆ Where you're from
- ◆ Personal detail

IT'S ALL ABOUT CARRYING THE MESSAGE

WSC 2006

IT'S ALL ABOUT CARRYING THE MESSAGE

Challenges and Hopes

Greatest Challenges:

Greatest Hopes:

WSC

2006

IT'S ALL ABOUT CARRYING

THE MESSAGE

Group Exercise

- ◆ Greatest challenge?
- ◆ Greatest hope?

WSC 2006

IT'S ALL ABOUT CARRYING THE MESSAGE

That “A-Ha” Moment

The 28th World Service Conference

